

THE STORY

Juanita's Bar is named after one of Victoria Streets most famous former residents, paying tribute to an iconic and influential figure in our history.

Juanita Nielsen was an Australian publisher, journalist and activist for urban conservations and community issues - particularly anti-development campaigns.

She lived and worked in a tiny terrace on this very street and in her final years was campaigning through her newspaper to stop the destruction of Victoria Street, one of Sydney's most beautiful boulevards, by businessman Frank Theemean.

Juanita's determination through activism against greedy developers in the 70's saved the very building The Butler and Juanita's now call home, along with the historic terraces next door, from demolition.

Juanita Nielsen disappeared on 4th July 1975 and it's believed she is the first journalist in Australia to be murdered for what she wrote. Her efforts led to her disappearance, which remains a mystery to this day....

LOS SIETE MISTERIOS DOBA-YEJ MEZCAL San Dioniso, Oaxaca, MEX

Siete Misterios was founded in 2010 by brothers Julio and Eduardo Mestre with the intent of keeping traditional mezcal production at the forefront of the mezcal industry. The company sources a wide range of mezcals that all highlight a single agave varietal. They are backed by those who are deeply saddened by the industrialization seen in most tequila and some low-grade mezcal, and they're doing everything in their power to keep the art of the mezcalero alive.

The mezcaleros making their bottles change batch to batch, so one batch may taste entirely different from the next batch's bottles. This gives Siete Misterios a lot of variety in its bottling, as each batch is made by a different person, with agave grown in a slightly different microclimate.

The Doba-Yej is a well-balanced Mezcal perfect for enjoying neat or in cocktails. Doba-Yej means Agave Espadín in the ancient Zapotec language, and each label features a Mexican war hero. They depict Doña Josefa Ortiz, Father Miguel Hidalgo, and José María Morelos.
